MINERS IN A RIOT.

STARTING OF WORKS PRECIPITATED THE TROUBLE.

RIOTERS THROW STONES.

Work Was Suspended in Order to Have No Trouble—Shots Fired by the Deputies.

Wilkesbarre, Pa., Aug. 15.—A riot occurred at the Warnke washery at Luryea yesterday afternoon. Trouble had been brewing since early morning. Before 7 o'clock 500 men and boys collected about the place and threatened to interfere with those who wanted to go to work. Sheriff Jacobs had a number of deputies on the ground and they held the crowd back. The works were started up, but remained in operation only a short time. The crowd on the outside threw stones over the stockade at the deputies who were on guard inside. Several times the deputies were tempted to fire. Rather than have any trouble, work was suspended for the time being.

The deputy sheriffs returned to Wilkesbarre early last night, reporting all quiet at the washery. They had hardly reached here, however, until the deputies on guard were attacked. Several men in the mob also attempted to climb over the barricade. The deputies warned them to go back and when they did not, a volley was fired, but the most of the bullets went high into the air. Harry Collins was shot through the right leg. Andrew Marlack, a Lithuanian, received a flesh wound and another foreigner had a narrow escape, a bullet passing through his coat. A negro employed at the washery, thinking his life was in danger, escaped from the barricade and ran down the street. He was pursued by an angry mob, who cried, "Hang him, hang him!"

The man was finally run down, but before any harm could befall him, a number of constables rescued him.

Deputy sheriffs from Luzerne and Lackawanna counties went to the scene of the rioting, but when they arrived all was quiet, the mob having dispersed. An eye witness says the attack, the shooting and the retreat did not last more than five minutes.

Warrants were sworn out before the burgess, charging the deputies with rioting and felonious wounding. The constables went to the washery and placed twenty-five men under arrest. They were arraigned before Burgess Burlington tonight and held in $3000 bail each. They could not furnish bail and were brought to the county jail here.

The United States miners say the shooting was uncalled for and the deputies alone are to blame. Chief Deputy Rhodda denied a report which gained currency that Governor Stone had been asked for troops. He says all is quiet at Luryea now and he does not expect further trouble.

Queer Money at San Antonio.

San Antonio, Texas, Aug. 15.—Counterfeit dollars, half dollars and quarters of the mintage of 1900 have made their appearance in San Antonio in large quantities and many small merchants have been victimized. The counterfeit is a good one and to other than an expert the coins are hard to distinguish from the genuine. The counterfeits first made their appearance three days ago and up to this time a large amount has been worked off.

Shipments to New Orleans.

New Orleans, Aug. 15.—The tug Charles Clarke arrived last night from Port Arthur with the Texas Oil and Transit Company's barges Nos. 1, 2 and 3, bringing a total of 38,000 barrels of Texas oil. This company is now regularly in the oil carrying trade.

It is better to be saved in a storm than drowned in a calm.

The Hill County Old Settlers.

Hillsboro, Texas, Aug. 15.—Large crowds are attending the reunion of the Hill county Confederate soldiers and old settlers. Yesterday Judge Jno. W. Stephens delivered an address on the Confederate soldier and there were short addresses by local members of the camp. In the afternoon Hon. C. F. Greenwood delivered the address of the day. There was also an address by Lemme Saules to Confederate fathers and a recitation by Miss Hazel Miller.

THE BURNING COAL MINE.

Crowds Flock to the Scene of the Queer Freak of Nature.

Sherman, Texas, Aug. 15.—Since the discovery of the underground fire in the vicinity of Gordonsville there has been much excitement. C. B. Dorchester and Federal Judge Bryant went to investigate the strange fire. The party found smoke issuing from the ground, giving out an odor that indicated the presence of burning coal. The vegetation was dead and the surface of the earth baked.

Mr. Dorchester said: "It is indeed remarkable and is calculated to create much interest. It is my opinion that coal exists there in quantities. The investigations made are not of character to enable one to determine the extent of coal. I made as thorough an examination as possible under the circumstances. The smoke issues from several openings in the ground and the air in the immediate vicinity is warm."

Engineer Fred Warren of the Frisco has been called to St. Louis, and he takes with him specimens of the substance and will have experts analyze it. He goes to meet Captain J. F. Hinkley, chief engineer, and it is believed his visit is due to the discovery of this deposit.

Murdered by False Wife.

Knoxville, Tenn., August 15.—Authentic details have been received of a desperate affray in which three young men and a woman, all of them prominent in Scott county, Tenn., were involved and which resulted in the death of one, the possible death of another and the flight of both the woman and the other man implicated.

For some time past Whig Duncan had been suspected of being too intimate with the wife of Jarrett Trammel. Trammel and his brother, Mart Trammel, returned to the former's home somewhat unexpectedly, and upon their arrival found that Mrs. Jarrett Trammel's room was locked and the blinds closed. While the two men were in another part of the house they heard a noise in the closed room and made an attempt to enter it. After some trouble they gained entrance just as shots from revolvers in the hands of both a woman and a man fired at them. The woman was the wife of Jarrett Trammel and the man was Whig Duncan, Jr. Jarrett and Mart Trammel fell to the floor, the former dead and the latter mortally wounded. The scene of the affray is at Winslow, a small town of Scott county, Tennessee.

Mrs. Jarrett Trammel and Whig Duncan, Jr., succeeded in making their escape into Kentucky, and at last accounts had not been captured.

Aged Odd Fellow Decorated.

Belton, Texas, August 15.—Mr. O. Dockum has received a badge from the grand lodge, Independent Order of Odd Fellows, for having been an active member of the order for fifty years. This is the third one in the Texas jurisdiction. Mr. Dockum joined the Bloomfield, Ill., lodge in July 1852. He has been a member of Belton, Ark., lodge for thirty years and is now grand chaplain of the grand lodge of Texas. He is a very zealous Odd Fellow and never fails to attend his lodge when able to do so.

There is a plague of flies and knots now prevailing in this section. They give great annoyance to stock.

Negro Exposition Opened.

Chicago, August 15.—For the first time in history an exposition conducted entirely by negroes was opened at the First Regiment armory tonight and will continue thirty days. Exhibits of the various kinds of work done by colored persons from the time the American slave was put to work in rice and cotton fields to the present day are on exhibition.

To show that negroes are capable of better work than they are generally given to there are on the floor of the exposition a postoffice and telegraph and express offices and actual business transacted by negroes at each of these places.

A Brenham Boy Killed.

Fort Worth, Texas, August 15.—Willie Joe Cline, aged 16, whose home is at Brenham, met instant death near Arlington this morning. The boy was a stowaway on a Texas and Pacific freight endeavoring to return home. Cline got on the train at Fort Worth. When the train reached Arlington depot trainmen found his lifeless body hanging to a brake beam. The only mutilation was the head, that being frightfully crushed and battered.
